

It is obviously futile to protest since Powell has already made up his mind, isn't it?

Allowing corporations to control print and t.v. media is NOT in the public interest because it will result in LESS news, not more.

We are already seeing the negative effects of corporate-controlled media. True journalism has gone down the tubes.